Ringgold County SCICF Grants $625 for Depot Sign

Ringgold County SCICF has brightened the Mount Ayr Preservation's outlook of the museum by placing a new metal sign identifying the Museum and Depot Park. The new double-sided sign has replaced a 13 year old deteriorated sign.

The Mount Ayr Preservation helps maintain and preserve the Mount Ayr Museum for present and future generations.

Ringgold County SCICF was pleased to provide support to this project.

Union County SCICF Awards $6,000

East Union Community Schools received a grant to purchase motorized bleachers for the new elementary gymnasium.

The bleachers will be used by hundreds of people from East Union and surrounding communities on a regular basis.

Union County SCICF was happy to provide support for this project!

Live Here? Give Here!

Decatur County SCICF awarded a $6,750 grant to the Lamoni Pool.

The new bath shelter house is larger than the old building, so they replaced the original fencing around the pool site to enclose the area for safety.

Decatur County SCICF is pleased to help support this wonderful project!

Lucas County Gazebo Endowment

The Lucas County Gazebo Endowment was established in 2013 to maintain the gazebo which is located on the Chariton square.

The endowment has received 3 gifts since being established and the current market value of the fund is just over $6,500.

Contact our office to give a gift to the gazebo fund.
